MASTER PRESS & COMPANY PROFILE KIT

PHRINUSOMYIS

1. COMPANY OVERVIEW

PHRINUSOMYIS is a global entertainment organization focused on stadium-scale production and the development of Sports Theater, a new category of live competition and entertainment created by the company.

The organization operates through a centralized international production system designed to execute live stadium events across multiple global markets with consistent structure, precision, and scale.

The 2026 cycle marks the transition of PHRINUSOMYIS from development phase into full international deployment.

2. CATEGORY: SPORTS THEATER

Sports Theater is a new category of live competition and entertainment defined by stadium-scale production, evolving competitive conditions, and real-time audience engagement within structured live events.

It replaces traditional predictable formats with dynamic, unscripted environments where performance, adaptation, and live conditions shape the outcome of each production.

Sports Theater is designed as a global live system, built for multi-stadium execution and continuous evolution across international markets.

3. FLAGSHIP EVENT

SOUL SURVIVE

SOUL SURVIVE is the flagship Sports Theater event introduced by PHRINUSOMYIS. It marks the first international public presentation of Sports Theater and serves as the launch point for the global rollout of the category.

The 2026 activation begins with a series of live stadium productions in West Africa on October 02, 2026, establishing the foundation for multi-region expansion across the United Kingdom, France, Spain, and China.

4. 2026 GLOBAL EXPANSION CYCLE

PHRINUSOMYIS is entering its 2026 operational cycle with strategic expansion into the following territories, forming the initial global deployment network for Sports Theater and future stadium-scale productions:

UNITED KINGDOM

FRANCE

SPAIN

CHINA
