POSITIONING

PHRINUSOMYIS operates at the intersection of stadium-scale production and cinematic execution, defining a new category known as Sports Theater.

CONCEPT

Sports Theater is a structured approach to live entertainment. It replaces traditional formats with controlled environments designed for scale, precision, and consistency. Each production is built to deliver the same standard across different venues and regions.

COMPANY

PHRINUSOMYIS is a luxury entertainment organization focused on stadium-scale production. The company operates through a centralized system that allows for coordinated execution across international markets. Activities are aligned to maintain consistency in both production and presentation.

OPERATIONS

Operations are structured across key locations:

- Brooklyn (Headquarters)
- Dubai
- Moscow
- Lagos

West Africa serves as the central hub for the 2026 cycle.

2026

The 2026 cycle includes expansion into the United Kingdom, France, Spain, and China. The international debut events in West Africa scheduled for July 24, 2026.
